Public invited to provide feedback on the Eastern Corridor Rapid Transit Study

Public engagement pop-ups planned this summer, online participation opportunities to continue through July

Winnipeg, MB – The City of Winnipeg is extending the Eastern Corridor Study public engagement process into the summer to continue to learn about Winnipeggers' priorities for rapid transit. Online mapping and criteria selection tools will remain open until the end of July, and the study team will be hosting pop-up engagement opportunities at community events in the study area to gain additional public input in this process.
